

ADDITIONAL FUNERAL DIRECTOR PRODUCTS AND SERVICES

Thank you for considering us to act on your behalf. You are asking us to arrange funeral that will be a unique occasion for a unique human being.

Our role is not selling you things but to provide a range of services that meet your needs and that are carried out in a respectful manner. Since the founding of our business by our grandfather over 100 years ago we have always believed in offering a quality service at a fair price.

A funeral has many different parts: -

- There are items you need for practical reasons;
- others because that is what has been requested.
- others because they are in accordance with beliefs,
- and some, perhaps, just because you wish to choose them.

We can supply a range of alternative, optional, additional products and services or can arrange (on your behalf) for a third party to supply them. Please note we do not give or accept financial commissions to or from third party suppliers.

Examples include: -
